Women's undergraduate. Coed graduate. Applying at www.alverno.edu is free and is rolling throughout the year. Applications require ACT or SAT scores. Counselor or teacher recommendations are optional and, if submitted, will be considered. Campus visits are highly recommended. Academic scholarships are available. Financial aid candidates must file the FAFSA.

Averages of admitted students, fall 2013:

ACT: 20.4
High school GPA: 3.08

WHAT MAKES ALVERNO GREAT:

- 94% of Alverno undergraduate alumnae find employment within six months of graduation, far exceeding the national average of 56%. Alverno's unique abilities-based curriculum and performance-based assessment require students to demonstrate excellence in their chosen field while practicing and perfecting the skills most in demand by employers.
- With a 10:1 student-to-faculty ratio, Alverno is committed to empowering the next generation of female leaders. In fact, for the last four consecutive years, U.S. News & World Report ranked Alverno in the top three in the Midwest for "Strong Commitment to Teaching."
- Last year, every student who filed for financial assistance and demonstrated need received aid to attend Alverno. 95% of last year's incoming class received an Alverno Academic scholarship; half of those students had at least 70% of their tuition covered by scholarships and grants they won't ever need to pay back.
- Alverno College Athletics offers seven sports at the NCAA Div. III Level: tennis, volleyball, cross country, basketball, softball, soccer and golf.

ACT scores of admitted students, fall 2013:

25th percentile: 25

WHAT MAKES BELOIT GREAT:

- The Beloit College campus has been transformed by the LEED-certified, environmentally sustainable Center for the Sciences. The innovative design of classroom and laboratory space facilitates new approaches to teaching and encourages interdisciplinary learning, critical for today's science students to take a leadership role in 21st century science.
- Beloit College believes that the broadest—and best—education includes opportunities outside the classroom to test, integrate, and evaluate knowledge and skills learned in the classroom. A cornerstone of the academic program, the Liberal Arts in Practice Center at Beloit guides students to internships, research opportunities, service in the community, and networks that mesh their academic work with career goals.
- Located just two blocks from campus in downtown Beloit, the Hendricks Center for the Arts is the home of the college's dance and music programs. An innovative adaptation to the 48,000-square-foot historic building, the space includes an orchestral room, many practice rooms, four studio classrooms, a state-of-the-art film classroom, design and staging labs.
- Beloit College routinely appears among the top schools rated as a "Best Value" in higher education in Kiplinger's and U.S. News. A robust financial aid program of both merit and need-based aid makes this high-value education affordable. Visit Beloit's 'Net Price Calculator,' which will provide guidance on the aid available based on your family's circumstances.
